Why Spend Your Summer With Us

Large companies offer structured programs. We offer real work on real problems.

- Learn by Doing: No coffee runs or busy work. You'll work on live deals, attend partner meetings, and see how a fast-growing startup actually operates.
- Real Exposure: Shadow senior team members in meetings with real estate developers, bank executives, and channel partners. See how deals get done.
- Mentorship That Matters: Work closely with experienced BD leaders who'll invest in your growth. Weekly 1:1s, real-time feedback, and genuine career guidance.
- Startup Immersion: Experience the pace, energy, and problem-solving of a scaling fintech. It's the best way to figure out if startup life is for you.
- PPO Pathway: Strong performers get fast-tracked for full-time offers. Many of our current BD leaders started as interns.

What You'll Actually Do

This isn't a "shadow and observe" internship. You'll contribute to real partnerships and learn how high-value deals get done. Expect a steep learning curve, meaningful responsibilities, and plenty of support along the way.

- Support Partnership Development: Help identify and reach out to potential builder partners and channel networks. Learn the art of relationship-building in B2B sales.
- Contribute to Revenue Goals: Work alongside the BD team to hit monthly targets. You'll see how your efforts connect directly to business outcomes.
- Conduct Market Research: Analyze competitive dynamics, market trends, and customer feedback. Your insights will inform real strategy decisions.
- Join Partner Meetings: Sit in on meetings with builders, financial institutions, and channel partners. Learn how senior leaders navigate complex conversations.
- Get Your Hands Dirty: Expect on-ground partner visits and market immersion. The best learning happens outside the office.

Who We're Looking For

We want interns who are curious, proactive, and eager to learn—not just tick a box on their resume.

- MBA candidate (Marketing, Strategy, or General Management) genuinely interested in fintech or real estate
